

ANDREA L WILLIAMSON

ABOUT

I live in Cambridge, MA and have a passion for web design. I currently work as a Speech-Language Pathologist in the Greater Boston Area and am turning my passion for coding, art and design into a new career.

EMPLOYMENT

I have experience as a Speech-Language Pathologist working within the geriatric population. I have worked at a variety of Skilled Nursing Facilities since 2012. I provide therapy to patients who have sustained strokes, traumatic brain injuries, or who are diagnosed with degenerative diseases.
